

Introduction

Capt. Martin Willis AFNI - Independent Maritime Advisor

Providing independent Port Marine Management advice & support to selected regional Ports and harbours. I shall be offering my expert qualifications, Knowledge and experience to smaller Ports and Statutory Harbour Authorities that would benefit from receiving such knowledge, experience & support which larger Port Authorities can attract and retain as a matter of course. This operational and Strategic knowledge can be provided in a flexible cost effective manner on an individual client basis subject to realistic revenues and budgets.

Industry Experience;

- MCA Endorsed Certified Harbour Master & Marine Director, Over 18 years' experience.
- Over 10 years' executive & senior marine industry management experience
- Executive Officer & past Vice President of the UK Harbour Masters Association.
- Past member of the British Ports Association National Executive Council (2008-2011)
- Associate Fellow of the Nautical Institute
- Full member of the Society of Consulting Marine Engineers & Ship Surveyors.
- Appointed to the UK Register of Expert Witnesses
- Certified ISPS Company & Port Facility Security Officer - 17 years' experience
- Experienced Marine Pilot

Independent Port Marine Management & Harbour support Services;

- PMSC – Act as designated person & internal auditor (ISO 9001-2015 certified), Best practice guidance, Risk Management, Marine Safety Management System - plans & policy development & delivery
- Legislation, Regulation & Governance – Advice, Support & Best Practice
- Relief / temporary marine pilot services
- Port Operational review, Gap Analysis & Business Health Checks
- Environmental compliance & planning (Inc. marine licensing advice & support)
- Port Security - ISPS Guidance & Compliance
- (Confidential) Board, Trustee, Commissioner & Harbour Master group & individual mentoring, coaching & personal development

Providing expert advice & support to selected Smaller Ports & Harbours at realistic (non-consultant) competitive rates.